

Ten years after

We can see them from up high. We can see them right on Murillo's phone. It's Pacification Police.

They're right behind you, and they've got they landed.

All over the world

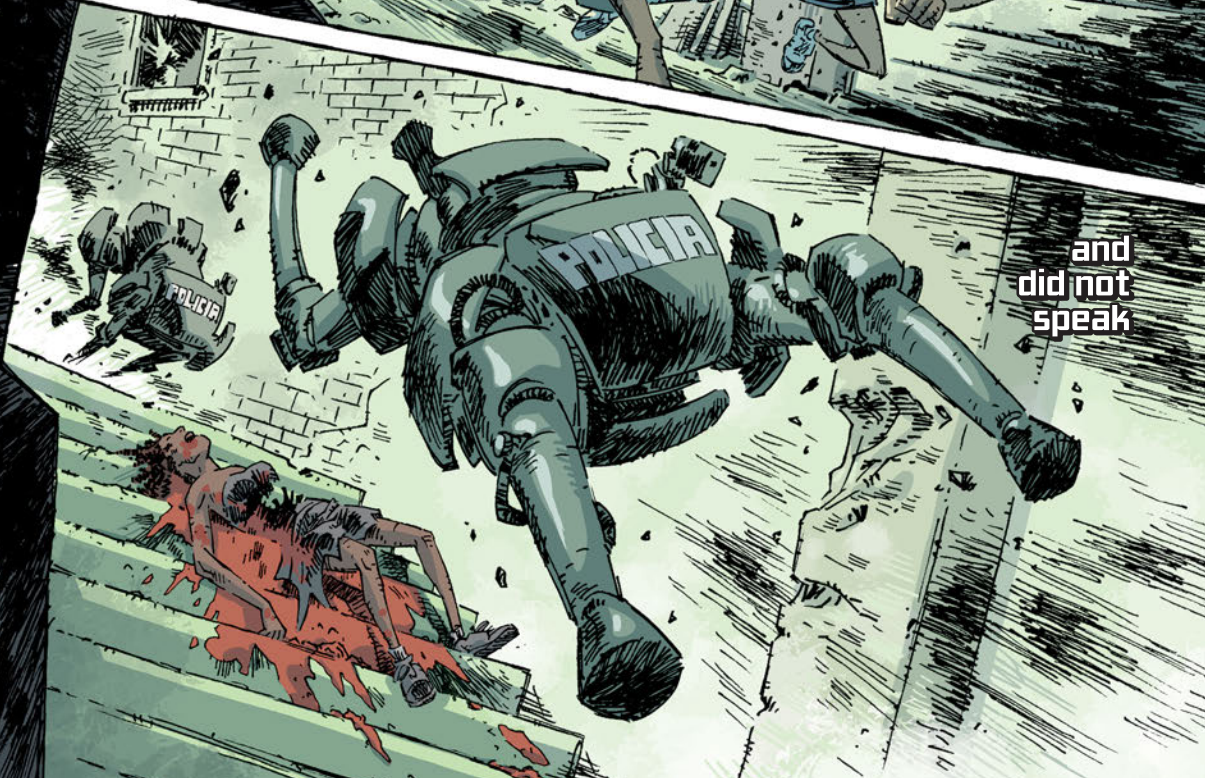

as if there were no one here.

And they did nothing

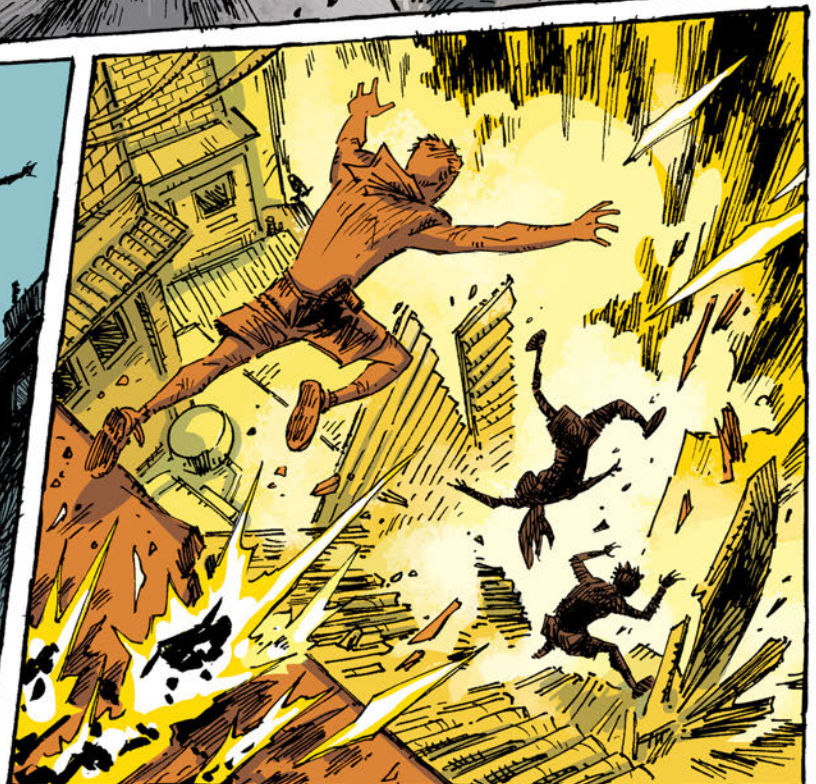

and did not speak

as if there were no-one here

and nothing
under foot.

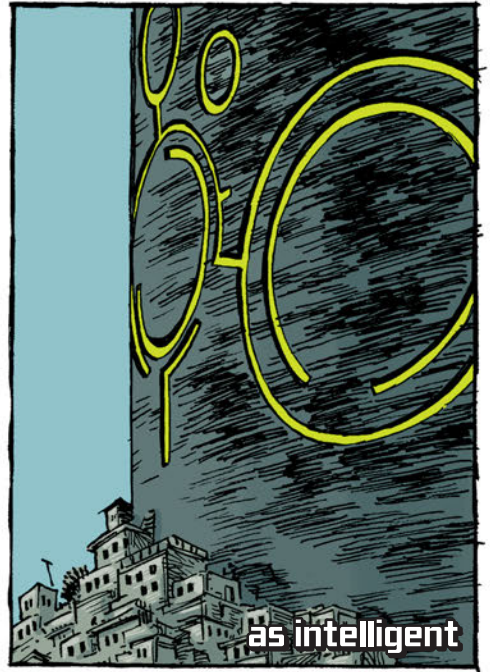

that there is
intelligent life
in the universe

but that they did not recognise us

as intelligent

or alive.
