ANGEL
—AFTER THE FALL—

Spike helped Angel bring down the Circle of the Black Thorn, thus incurring the wrath of Wolfram & Hart. This led to Wesley's death, Gunn's mortal wounding, and a bloody brawl with Wolfram & Hart's army of ogres, demons and other assorted creatures (including a dragon). Moments into the battle, there was a flash of white light...

...and in an instant, all of Los Angeles had been transported to hell.

Angel and his friends were separated. Spike, transported to the roof of a skyscraper, was elated he survived yet ANOTHER battle to the death. Feeling he had earned his happy ending, Spike declared himself retired from fighting the forces of evil.

Hell got even better for Spike when he spotted supposedly deceased friend Winifred Burkle, seemingly free of Illyria.

But then.

Citizens of Los Angeles were being overwhelmed by demons coming out of the woodwork. And two minutes into his retirement, Spike got back into the game, saving civilians with Fred at his side. A demon got the drop on Spike...

...and before Spike's eyes, Fred turned back into Illyria and saved him.
